Constitution

Section I – ÉCOLE LAC DES BOIS ELEMENTARY PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The name of this Council is École Lac des Bois Elementary Parent Advisory Council (also referred to as Council).

The Council will operate as a non-profit organization with no personal financial benefit accruing to members.

The business of the Council will be unbiased in respect of race, religion, gender, politics, sexual orientation, and physical or mental ability.

Mission Statement:

École Lac des Bois Elementary Parent Advisory Council is dedicated to enriching the educational experience of our students. We seek to benefit all of the students at École Lac des Bois Elementary by supporting our student body as a whole while fulfilling the purposes of the council. Our mission is to communicate effectively with our school stakeholders, parents, students and educators thus enhancing a positive school community. Our goal is to encourage our school community and engage parents to participate in supporting our student experience through involvement in school activities.

Section II – PURPOSES OF THE COUNCIL

The purposes of the Council will be:

1. To promote the education and welfare of students in the school;
2. To encourage parent involvement in the school, and to support programs that promote parent involvement;
3. To advise the school board, principal, and staff on any matter relating to the school;
4. To promote the interests of public education and, in particular, the interests of École Lac des Bois Elementary(LDB);
5. To provide leadership in the school community;
6. To contribute to a sense of community within the school and between the school, home, and neighbourhood;
7. To provide parent education and professional development, and a forum for discussion of educational issues;
8. To assist parents in obtaining information and communicating with the principal and staff about their child's progress or other concerns;
9. To assist the principal and staff in ensuring the highest safety standards are maintained in the school and neighbourhood;
10. To organize and support activities for students and parents ;
11. To provide financial support for the goals of the Council, as determined by the membership;
12. To advise and participate in the activities of the Prince George District Parent Advisory Council and the BC Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils

Section III – INTERPRETATION OF TERMS

“community organizations” means groups that demonstrate an interest in education and are not already included in the scope of the Council’s constitution and bylaws

“district” means School District No. 57

“DPAC” or “district parent advisory council” means the parent advisory councils organized according to the School Act and operating as a district parent advisory council in School District No. 57

“PAC” or “parent advisory council” means the parents organized according to the School Act and operating as a parent advisory council in École Lac des Bois Elementary.

“parent” is as defined in the School Act and means

- the guardian of the person of the student or child,
- the person legally entitled to custody of the student or child, or
- the person who usually has the care and control of the student or child
- and, for the purposes of these bylaws, means the parent or guardian of a child or children enrolled in School District No. 57

“school” means any public elementary or secondary educational institution as defined in the School Act operating within School District No. 57

“SIG” or “Special Interest Group” means a group within our school operating for a special purpose as a subsidiary of the PAC. An example is the grade 7’s who usually have large expenses for year-end celebrations and/or trips. The purpose of money-handling for a SIG is to assist School District 57’s request to reduce handling of cash not related to their operations.

Bylaws

Section I – MEMBERSHIP

Voting members

1. All parents and guardians of students registered in LDB are voting members of the Council.

Non-voting members

2. Administrators and staff (teaching and non-teaching) of LDB may be invited to become non-voting members of the Council. Should a parent or guardian also be an administrator and/or staff, their right as a voting member per the definition of a voting member in point 1 shall supersede the definition of a non-voting member. It is recommended that all perception of bias be disclosed to the PAC Executive who in turn will disclose them to the PAC membership.
3. Members of the school community who are not parents of students registered in the public school system may be invited to become non-voting members of the Council.
4. At no time will the Council have more non-voting than voting members.

Compliance with bylaws

5. Every member will uphold the constitution and comply with these bylaws.

Section II –MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

General meetings

1. General meetings will be conducted with fairness to all members.
2. General meetings will be held not less than four times during the school year. One of those meetings will be the annual general meeting (typically the last meeting of the year).

Conduct

3. At general meetings, members will not discuss individual school personnel, students, parents, or other members of the school community.
4. The Council will refrain from partisan political action or other activities that do not serve the interests of the school or the public school system.
5. No cross-talking; establishment of speakers by list noted by President.
6. Committee (ie playground, hot lunch, garden, etc.) meetings are external to general PAC meetings and summarized reports and/or request may be submitted as agenda items.

Notice of meetings

7. Members will be given reasonable notice of general meetings.

Section III – PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

1. A quorum for general meetings will be five (5) voting members.
2. If at any time during a general meeting a quorum ceases to be present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.

Voting

3. Except as provided elsewhere in these bylaws, all matters requiring a vote will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast (50% plus 1).
4. In the case of a tie vote, the chair does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.
5. Members must vote in person on all matters. Email voting may be permitted on items where a timely decision is required prior to the next scheduled general meeting and should money be involved, the value must be less than $250.00 (two hundred fifty dollars). Emails will be sent to all attendees of the previous general meeting. Voting by proxy will not be permitted.
6. Except as provided elsewhere in these bylaws, voting is by a show of hands or, where requested by two voting members present, by secret ballot.
7. A vote will be taken to destroy the ballots after every election.

Section IV -- EXECUTIVE

Role of executive

1. The executive will manage the Council's affairs between general meetings.
2. Executive defined: the executive will include the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, immediate past president, and such other members of the Council as the membership decides.

Eligibility

3. Any voting member of the Council is eligible to serve on the executive. Should employees or elected officials of School District No. 57 or the Ministry of Education want to serve on the executive, a perception of bias exists. This perception of bias must be disclosed, discussed and voted upon prior to being eligible to serve on the executive. The elected position of President will not be held by an employee or elected official of School District No. 57 or the Ministry of Education. Should an employee or elected official of School District No. 57 or the Ministry of Education be elected to the Council (with the exception of President), they must abstain from voting on matters where a perception of bias exists.

Election of executive

4. The executive will be elected at each annual general meeting.

Term of office

5. The executive will hold office for a term of one year beginning the following school year, generally between September 1 and August 31.

6. No person may hold the same executive position for more than four consecutive years. Should no other person come forward to hold office for the same executive position after reasonable effort is made to solicit a new executive member, then the previous person may continue to hold that position, if elected, on a year by year basis until a new executive member is found for that same position.

Vacancy

7. If an executive member resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the remaining executive members may appoint an eligible member of the Council to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.

Removal of executive

8. The members may, by a majority of not less than 75% of the votes cast, remove an executive member before the expiration of his or her term of office, and may elect an eligible member to complete the term.
9. Written notice specifying the intention to make a motion to remove the executive member must be given to all members not less than 14 days before the meeting.

Remuneration of executive

10. No executive member may be remunerated for serving on the executive, but may be reimbursed for expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred while engaged in the Council's affairs.

Section V – EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

Meetings

1. Executive meetings will be held at the call of the president or vice-president, should the president be unavailable. At least one meeting will be held before each general meeting.

Quorum

2. A quorum for executive meetings will be a majority (50% plus 1) of the members of the executive.

Notice

3. Executive members will be given reasonable notice of executive meetings.

Voting

4. All matters requiring a vote at executive meetings will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast (50% plus 1).
5. In the case of a tie vote, the chair does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.

Section VI - DISTRICT PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL AND EXTERNAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVES

District Parent Advisory Council representative

1. One representative to the District Parent Advisory Council (DPAC) may be elected annually from among the voting members. Should employees or elected officials of School District No. 57 or the Ministry of Education want to serve as DPAC representative, a perception of bias exists. This perception of bias must be disclosed and discussed prior to being eligible as the DPAC representative.

Election of DPAC representatives

2. Refer to Section III, voting.

Term of office

3. DPAC representatives will hold office for a term of one year.

Vacancy

4. If a DPAC representative resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the membership may elect an eligible member of the Council to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. Refer to Section III, voting.

External committees

5. The membership or executive may elect or appoint a member who is not an employee or elected official of School District No. 57 or the Ministry of Education to represent the Council on an external committee or to an external organization.
6. The representative will report to the membership or executive as required.

Section VII – CONDUCT OF EXECUTIVE AND REPRESENTATIVES

Code of ethics

1. On election or appointment, every executive member and representative must sign and agree to abide by a code of ethics acceptable to the membership.

Representing the Council

2. Every executive member and representative must act solely in the interests of the parent membership of the Council.

Privilege

3. Any information received in confidence by an executive member or representative from school personnel, a student, parent, or other member of the school community is privileged and must not be divulged without permission of the person giving the information.

Disclosure of interest

4. An executive member or representative who is interested, either directly or indirectly, in a proposed contract or transaction with the Council must disclose fully and promptly the nature and extent of his or her interest to the membership and executive.
5. Such an executive member or representative must avoid using his or her position on the Council for personal gain.

Section IX – COMMITTEES

The membership and executive may appoint committees to further the Council's purposes and carry on its affairs.

The terms of reference of each committee will be specified by the membership or executive at the time the committee is established, or by the committee at its first meeting, as the membership or executive decide.

Committees will report to the membership and executive as required.

Section X – FINANCIAL MATTERS

Fiscal year

1. The financial year of the Council will be September 1 to August 31.

Power to raise money

2. The Council may raise and spend money to further its purposes.

Bank accounts

3. All funds of the Council must be kept on deposit in the name of the Council in a bank or financial institution registered under the Bank Act.
 - a. Specifically, all funds related to the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch of the Government of British Columbia will be managed in the “gaming” account. This includes any Special Interest Group (SIG) gaming related moneys.
 - b. Specifically, all funds related to general PAC fundraising and expenditures will be managed in the “general” account.
 - c. Specifically, all funds related to Special Interest Group (SIG) non-gaming fundraising and expenditures will be managed in the “SIG” account.

Signing authority

4. The executive will name at least three signing officers for banking and legal documents. Two signatures will be required on all of these documents.

Annual budget

5. The executive will prepare a budget and present it to the membership for approval prior to October 15 of the current school year and the budget will expire August 31 of that same school year.

Non-budgeted expenditures

 - a. The executive will present all proposed expenditures beyond the current budget for approval at the next general meeting. Requests for money are required to be added to the agenda more than 3 working days in advance of the next scheduled meeting. Furthermore, requests for money require approval from the Principal and/or School District to be added to the agenda.
 - b. Money handling for Special Interest Groups will be approved at a general PAC meeting before fundraising and expenditures for that SIG group can occur. Once the SIG has been established for the current fiscal year, expenditures will be processed using a written request signed and approved by two members of the SIG; these expenditures are not required to be voted on by the PAC membership. SIG expenditures must not exceed their related SIG fundraising.

Treasurer’s report

7. A treasurer’s report will be presented at each general meeting.

Auditor

8. Members at a general meeting may appoint an auditor.

Section XI – CONSTITUTION AND BYLAW AMENDMENTS

1. The members may, by a majority of not less than 75% of the votes cast, amend the Council’s constitution and bylaws.
2. Written notice specifying the proposed amendments must be given to the members not less than 14 days before the meeting.
3. Where the proposed amendments exceed one page, they need not be given to every member, but must be posted in a conspicuous place in the school or made accessible to all members.

Section XII – PROPERTY IN DOCUMENTS

1. All documents, records, minutes, correspondence, or other papers kept by a member, executive member, representative, or committee member in connection with the Council shall be deemed to be property of the Council and shall be turned over to the president when the member, executive member, representative, or committee member ceases to perform the task to which the papers relate.

Section XIII – DISSOLUTION

1. In the event of winding up or dissolution of the Council, and after payment of all debts and costs of winding up or dissolution, the assets and remaining funds of the Council shall be distributed to another parent advisory council or councils in School District No. 57 having purposes similar to those of the Council, as the members of the Council may determine at the time of winding up or dissolution.
2. In the event of winding up or dissolution, all records of the Council shall be given to the principal of LDB.

To Whom It May Concern:

École Lac des Bois, the French school at the Lakewood location, is organizing their second annual February Family Raffle for 2012. The raffle will consist of 29 daily draws (during the month of February 2012) for prizes that promote family togetherness. Our goal is to encourage more family fun and to help raise funds for a new playground structure for our school.

We are seeking community support to help promote local family-oriented activities and ventures. It would be greatly appreciated if your company could provide a monetary or product sponsorship (i.e. family pass or gift certificate) for this raffle. A "thank you" and recognition of all contributing businesses will be printed in the Prince George Citizen after the final raffle draw.

We thank you in advance for your very generous support in helping us to enhance our children's school life.

_____ is hereby authorized to accept your donation on behalf of the École Lac des Bois Parent Advisory Council. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact PAC treasurer Elena Thomas (250-563-8808)
